

Premiere Literary Magazine Order Form

Don't wait until the 2017 edition comes out next May, order yours today.

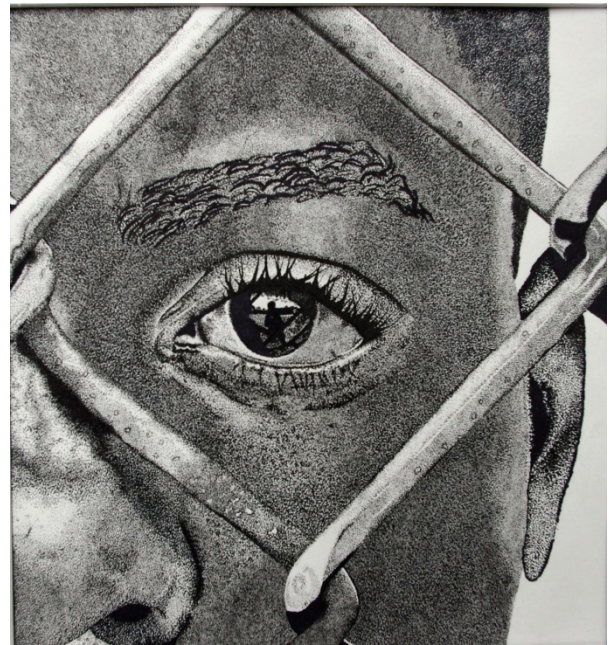

Waubonsie's literary magazine is a student-created, annual publication that features the writing, poetry, photography, and art of our very talented student body. The 2016 - 2017 edition will be distributed in May to your student through his/her English class. Since 2010, our magazine has received awards from the National Council of Teachers of English for excellence in presentation and quality of the work presented. Questions? Contact jen_kastner@ipsd.org or liz_fay@ipsd.org

For only $10, you can support Waubonsie Valley's young, aspiring artists, writers, and creative geniuses.

Excerpt written by Catalina Bode:

"Our Nothing"

Beauty was captured out of our nothings. These finger fitting, thorn pricking, dim lit whispering tidbits of what defined us. In those moments sweetness was savored after dwelling on bitterness. And the idea of all that is to come disintegrates. Not what once was, but what will soon be. All gone. Our nothing never to be anything.
